Dear Florence,

Letter of Appreciation

We purchased ANSYS HFSS from CAD-IT in August 2014 and it is currently under the maintenance contract. We are satisfied with the software and the local support.

We would like to commend Dr. Zheng Boyu from CAD-IT for his assistance in trainings and addressing the technical difficulties. In particular, we want to express our thanks to Dr Zheng who has been patient and shown his professionalism in assisting us in our unconventional applications of the HFSS.

We would like to thank CAD-IT for the good support and service rendered.

Yours Sincerely,

John Chiang, Ph.D
Engineering Manager
